CITY NEWS.

HIGHLAND-Lovely Beds-Daily Restaurant. Fine Sample Room.

Before buying any heating stoves examine the celebrated Estate Oak. It keeps fire as long as any base burners and burns any kind of fuel. Sold by Donahoe Hardware Co.

joyed the holidays with her parents. The young lady resumed her studies at the Sisters' academy this morning. Mr. Otero made a pleasant call at this office this afternoon, and stated that his section of Valencia county was in a prosperous condition and all the ranchmen and farmers, owing to the prevailing good times, were meeting their debts and mortgage obligations. The gentleman returns to Cuba on the evening.

L. D. Bartlett, for years the boss painter at the local railway shops, left last night for Los Angeles, he being transferred to the California shops. Several friends were at the depot to see him safely on the train. Mrs. Bartlett and children will remain in the city until Mr. Bartlett secures a comfortable house for them in Los Angeles. They are most excellent people, old residents of this city, and THE CITIZEN regrets their departure.

In a note to THE CITIZEN, Mrs. Ella G. Shields states that she enjoyed a splendid vacation among relatives and friends of Illinois and Kansas, but "the weather was beastly—cloudy, muddy, sleety and cold enough to freeze your bones!" The lady is now at Wichita, Kansas, and will remain there until January 15, when she goes on the road to travel.

James Devine, the First Regiment band leader, returned to Phoenix last night, to resume his old position as band teacher at the government Indian school there. Mr. Devine came in from Phoenix about two weeks ago, but there was not enough money here, so he returned west.

John T. Barracough, of the popular hardware firm of E. J. Post & Co., is in the city from Oakland, Cal., and will remain here several weeks. Mr. Barracough states that California is suffering for want of rain, the rainy season now being behind about two months.

M. W. Browne and wife, and C. F. Jones, who were south enjoying the New Year with friends—the former at Socorro and Mr. Jones at Belen, passed through the city last night en route to Las Vegas.

Velveten, 17½¢, 25¢, 37½¢, 50¢ per yard. A splendid line of ribbon at greatly reduced prices. A complete line of dress linings. Genuine linen lace at 1¢ per yard and upwards. THE MAKE.

K. H. Harlow, the division master mechanic for the Santa Fe Pacific at Gallup, was here yesterday swapping "old year" jokes with his lodge friends. He returned to Gallup last night.

Episcopal oyster supper to-morrow night at Grant's opera house, from 6 o'clock p. m. till 7:30. Oysters will also be served after the Kirmis performance.

There is only enough money in the general county fund to pay about fifty cents on the dollar of outstanding bills against the county.

Ninety-nine cents buy a flannellette wrapper, colors all boiled; regular price, $1.25. See them at The Economist.

Hon. Sol. Luna and wife, of Los Lunas, were in the city yesterday, coming in from Santa Fe last Saturday night.

The board of county commissioners is in session at the court house, disposing of the business of the past year.

"The New St. Perkins" coach, with the company, came in from the north last night, and continued west.

R. W. Warren and wife, of El Paso, came in from the south last night and are at Sturges' European.

Mrs. K. Frick and daughter, and Chas. K. Frick, of Philadelphia, are registered at Sturges' European.

Just think of it! Beautiful fur coats and muffs at half New York cost, at the Big Store.

Don't forget that Newcomer has the finest line of dairies in the city.

Best Luca olive oil in bulk, forty cents a pint, at Lombardo's.

'Possums, 'possums, 'possums, $1.50 apiece. San Jose Market.

Ice wool shawls in black and cream color, at The Economist.

Odds and ends in every department at half price at Hild Bros.

Miss Albright will assist at the Kirmis to-morrow night.

Ducks and chickens, 10 cents a pound. San Jose Market.

Children's fur sets at 75 cents, at the Big Store.

CONTINUATION OF SPECIAL SALE

FOR ONE WEEK LONGER!

Until Saturday, Jan. 8, Inclusive

Ladies' Capes and Jackets—We still have an immense stock of these goods on hand. We don't want to keep one over. There is only one way to gain this end—Cut the Price. We're doing this with vim. Capes worth $2, now $1.25; capes worth $3, now $1.50; capes worth $4, now $2.00; jackets worth $5, now $3.00; jackets worth $6, now $3.50; jackets worth $7, now $4.00; jackets worth $8, now $4.50; jackets worth $9, now $5.00; jackets worth $10, now $5.50. We are not giving fictional values on the goods, but prices at which they sold.

Ladies' Kid Gloves—We have been selling them for $1.35 to introduce them. They are splendid $1.50 value. Your money back if they burst. During this sale at $1 per pair.

Underwear—For the whole family, 20 per cent off our regular prices. These regular prices must have been way down, judging by the underwear we sold, and the public's verdict of same. This brings our $1.50 garments to $1.20; our $1.25 garments to $1; our $1.50 garments to 75¢; our 75¢ garments to 50¢; our 50¢ garments to 25¢. And others at a rate.

Ladies' Belts, Pocket Books, Linen and Silk Handkerchiefs at equally reduced prices. White Hemstitched and Scaloped Handkerchiefs at 3 for 25¢.

Dress Skirts—Cut right, lined right, sewed right, and bought right. All these qualities combine to make it an easy matter for us to sell them right, at all times, and sometimes to make people wonder how we can sell them so cheap. This is to be one of these times. Remember, this is not a money-making scheme, but a closing out affair. Ladies' skirts worth $2, now $1.15; ladies' skirts worth $2.50, now $1.50; ladies' skirts worth $3, now $1.75; ladies' skirts worth $3.50, now $2.00; ladies' skirts worth $4, now $2.25; ladies' skirts worth $4.50, now $2.50;
